National Network of Local Action Groups

The NNLAG in the Czech Republic (civic association) was founded at the beginning of April 2007, while the network itself had been established as early as in November 2005 as an informal grouping of Local Action Groups called "The National Rural Development Network".

Scope and range of activity

- Lobbying and advocacy on national level
- Lobbying and advocacy on European and regional levels
- Training of LAGs and staff
- Service provider for Managing authorities and ministries – education and training of LAGs paid from ERDF Technical assistance, organizing conferences, seminars and exhibitions for Rural Development Network
- Participation in LEADER dissemination projects (e.g. Georgia) and environmental projects

The incredible diversity of food, food culture, food traditions and food knowledge has already become an annual event. (A cooperation project between LAG Kralovska stezka, LAG Oslavka and JAG North Pennine Dales Leader).

Dissemination of LEADER, support and assistance for participatory mechanisms in local decision-making processes and local sustainable development (implemented by NNLAG CR in cooperation with People in Need within an ENPARD project).
