Latvian Rural Forum

Latvian Rural Forum was established in 2004 with the aim to promote sustainable development of Latvian rural territories in order to create it as a place where contented people live, able to meet their economic and social needs in the place of their residence.

Latvian Rural Forum main activities are:

- Development of NGO cooperation network;
- Explanatory and educational activities for activating local initiatives;
- Strengthening LRF position in the dialog between politicians and organizations.

Latvian Rural Forum has 71 member organizations (Sept, 2018), including 34 from 35 Latvian LAGs

Bi-yearly Latvian Rural Community Parliament

Two-day thematic and capacity building LAG seminars at least once in season with the participation with different experts and stakeholders

Identifying, promoting and honoring inspiring and successful initiatives

Building the network and exchange of experiences and knowledge – weekly online meetings with LAGs, regular surveys, data collection etc.

Representation of LAGs and rural inhabitants in working groups, committees
