REDR – Red Española de Desarrollo Rural

The Spanish Network for Rural Development (REDR) is a non-profit making association which was founded in 1995 with the general aim of promoting a global and sustainable model of rural development.

The REDR is currently made up of Regional Networks, which include over 180 Rural Development Groups throughout Spain. These Regional Groups manage Programmes and Initiatives related to Rural Development, essentially LEADER CLLD.

Representation and dialogue with national and European institutions

2010 | REDR receives the Silver Plate for Agrarian, Fishing and Food Merit from the Spanish Ministry of the Environment and Rural and Marine Affairs

2018 | Annual agreement with the MAPA in order to reinforce the activities of the Network

2017 | REDR is part of the ELARD Council after the election of the new presidency

Visibility, animation and dynamization of the current situation of participative local LEADER development

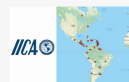

2013 | Organization of a national event with the participation of all the REDR LAG

2016 | REDR organizes the first "lab" on the potential of applying the Smart approach in rural territories

Design and implementation of several cooperation projects between LAGs, local authorities and European programs

2009 | REDR signs a framework agreement on cooperation in rural development between Spain and Latin America with the Inter-American Institute for Cooperation on Agriculture (IICA)

2016 | Definition of the action plan and a management program for a local action group in Abkhazia (Georgia) with the ENPARD II program

2014 | Organization of a cooperation forum in La Antigua (Guatemala), with the participation of 10 Latin American countries and several Spanish LAGs.

Transfer of knowledge and good practices

Edition of several publications annually on BBPP LEADER, rural women, ideas of rural entrepreneurship, green economy...

Daily update of news on the web and sending a weekly newsletter with a selection of news and events on rural development.
